

Investigation of Repeated Accidents- Introduction of a New Class of Investigation for Preventing the Recurrence of Similar Accidents -

Project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Investigation of Repeated Accidents
Major changes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● New class of investigation (Central Accident Investigation Group and RAICs) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The new class of investigation involves in-depth analyses, using new technologies and methods, of the causes of similar and repeated accidents with the aim of identifying immediate causes, contributing factors, and measures for preventing recurrence. ● Feedback review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Results of investigations are shared, along with feedback, through quarterly meetings.