

The 5th CEO course begins

President Hun-ki Baek of KOSHA announced on 22nd that the 5th OSH-CEO course opened. This OSH-CEO course, run by both Joong-ang University and KOSHA, was set up under the goal of creating new paradigm for occupational safety and health leadership which is emerging as one of the most important strategy for the corporate management in the 21st century.

The course recruits CEO and executives of private companies, head and executives of the disaster prevention organizations, safety officers of the government or public agencies, and head of local governments and others. They may apply for the course by Apr, 23.

The course is delivered every Tuesday for 22 week from Apr, 30 to Dec. 3 in Law School building of the Joong-ang University.

Its curriculum consists of business administration, CEO's leadership, global economy as well as occupational safety and health. The course also provides special lecture by celebrities and opportunity to go abroad for studying.

Any of those who want to join the course may apply through the website of OSHRI (Occupational Safety and Health Institute).
